DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the individual characters, machine readable data and human readable data printed must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 17-25 are objected to because of the following informalities: each section of the claim should begin with lower case letters; e.g. the phrase “Encoding algebraically” should read “encoding algebraically”. Appropriate correction is required.

Claims 18-25 are being objected as incorporating the deficiencies of the claim upon which each respective claim depends.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claims 1-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. The subject matter of claim 1 is directed to verifying the authenticity of printed document. However, it is unclear as to exactly what, the individual characters are. Furthermore, the spec does not clearly define what are “human readable characters” and “machine readable characters”. Thus it unclear as to how the probabilities are being assessed. Therefore, one of ordinary skill in the art would not have been able to practice the invention without undue experimentation and burden.

Claims 2 -27 are being rejected as incorporating the deficiencies of the claim upon which each respective claim depends

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

6. Claims 1-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 recites the limitation “the individual characters” in line 5-6. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 1 recites the limitation “the probability” in line 7. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 3 recites the limitation “the form of encoding” in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claims 2 and 4-27 are being rejected as incorporating the deficiencies of the claim upon which each respective claim depends.

. Examiners Notes

Pending the clarification of the 112 rejection, there is no prior art available for rejecting claims 1-27.
